Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 41,42 and 46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Reimels, et al.-6022360.

Reimels discloses a device in fig. 12 which has a fastening element 74,76,78 made out of a shape-recovery material, a suture strand and a loading tool 14 having a lumen 70 therethrough. The sides of the fastening element diverge thus forming a structure which could interact with the suture to cause it to be fixed relative to the element.

Claims 41,42 and 46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Diduch, et al.-2002/0147456.

Diduch discloses a device including a loading tool 20, a fastening element as shown in fig. 5a made out of a shape-recovery material and a suture 16. The sides of the fastening element diverge thus forming a structure which could interact with the suture to cause it to be fixed relative to the element.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 25,27,29-32,38-40 and 65-85 are allowed.

Claims 43 and 44 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejected claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
